

WRITE TO BE FULLY ALIVE

A JOURNEY OF DISCOVERY WITH NANCY DORRIER

One of our favorite things to do together as a team is write and hear what each other has written. We think of it as a secret leadership tool.

We use it to bring ourselves to a place of curiosity and caring. We use it to wake ourselves up. We use it to tune up our listening and discover things about each other we never knew. We use it to get connected before launching into strategic conversations.

We want that for you, too!

Join us for our next free-writing session and explore what being part of a committed group could provide if you decide to make a writing practice part of your ongoing development:

The real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new landscapes, but in having new eyes.
